I've reviewed this and believe it is an excellent piece of work. (b)(5) deliberative & attorney client privileged

As to the language on how to address tributaries, I'm of two minds. On one hand, (b)(5) deliberative & attorney client privileged

I also have a few minor language suggestions on the text on pp. 28-20 to soften the language a bit (woulds instead of wills, etc).

Finally, does Ben need to sign this? -- I viewed it as a staff-level analysis, and that Ben would only sign the decision letter I understand OW is preparing.

Re: Background Section on SCR

All -- Here is the latest version of the SCR special case. I asked R9 to take a look at the background section before the Holidays -- the latest version incorporates R9's edits to date and it is paired down in terms of the amount of detail included. If you could take a look at the latest version and provide any additional comments it would be very helpful. Thanks -- Sam

Re: Background Section on SCR

Hi Sam- You've done a nice job with this. I have a very few minor edits and suggestions in the attached markup. As Jessica and Amy are probably more familiar with the river than I, they may have additional suggestions.

Many thanks for your assistance.

And Sam and Karyn, thanks again for all your hard work on this.

Background Section on SCR

All in R9 --

Attached is a revised version of the "Background" section for the Santa Cruz River special case. It would be incredibly helpful if you could check to make sure what we are saying comports with your understanding of the facts and add anything you deem important.

(b)(5) deliberative & attorney client privileged

A couple questions:

(1) (b)(5) deliberative & attorney client privileged

(2) (b)(5) deliberative & attorney client privileged

Any thoughts on the draft let me know. Thanks! --- Sam
